Tonight's Game
by Dave Guffey
UM Sports Information Director

PLAYOFF SPOTS STILL UP FOR GRABS

It's getting down to the nitty-gritty now for Big Sky Conference basketball teams.

With just a few games remaining the scramble for the four BSC playoffs spots is just as close as it was in January, a few short weeks ago, when the conference season began.

A scramble that is, except for tonight's foe, Weber State. The Wildcats boast an 8-1 conference mark, and an equally impressive overall mark of 20-5. Add to that a recent ranking (19th) in the UPI coaches' poll, and you can see coach Neil McCarthy's team has a good foothold on the BSC ladder.

Meanwhile, Saturday evening's opponent, the Northern Arizona Lumberjacks forgot to look at their pre-conference record (4-7) and thought they'd get their two cents in on which teams will be going to the playoffs.

NAU is currently in a three-way tie with Idaho State and Gonzaga for second place in the BSC, all with 5-4 records. (That could change depending on the outcome of the ISU-Boise State game last night in Boise).

Of course coach Mike Montgomery's University of Montana Grizzlies also have a little something to say about the playoff situation. UM is 4-5, and definitely still in the playoff picture. (See BSC standings, page 11).

However, Montgomery knows that his team is in a precarious position.

"Our backs are to the wall," Montgomery said. "We know we have to win at home to make it to the playoffs, and hopefully pick up a win on the road next weekend (at ISU and BSU). I still think a 7-7 record will get you in the playoffs."

Montgomery also said tonight's game against Weber could be even more important because of the format the Big Sky has adapted in case of a tie.

"The way the playoff criteria works is that if there is a tie the team that did the best against Weber (the first place team) will be in it. So from that standpoint the game is important. ISU didn't win either game against them, and Northern Arizona still has them at home (Gonzaga plays at Weber next Saturday)."

If the tie cannot be broken by comparing records with the first-place team, then it goes down to second place and then the third-place finisher. If there is still a tie a coin toss will be the determining factor.

Despite losing a 60-46 game to Weber before more than 9,000 fans in Ogden, UM trailed the Wildcats by only five points (20-15) at halftime.

In that game John Stroeder won the battle of the big men, outscoring WSU's 7-1 Richard Smith 21-11, and that facet of the game will be crucial for The Griz tonight. David Johnson (6-8) led WSU with 17 points. Another potent weapon for the 'Cats is guard Bruce Collins (6-5), a first team all-BSC pick last year as a sophomore. WSU's starting lineup stands 7-1, 6-8, 6-7, 6-5 and 6-0.

NAU's starting five, though, is 6-6, 6-5, 6-3 and two at 6-0. Team speed and excellent shooting has been the Lumberjack's strong point. Last week NAU was ranked 11th nationally in free throw percentage (.765), and guard-forward Troy Hudson (6-3) was shooting at a .907 clip from the line.

Despite their height advantage UM was outrebounded 38-31 in its 72-59 loss to NAU in Flagstaff January 11th.

Mike Montgomery
Head Coach

Mike Montgomery begins his initial campaign as head coach at the University of Montana. He served as assistant coach to Jim Brandenburg for the past two seasons at UM. Montgomery is an outstanding recruiter, and handled the coaching duties on a few occasions last year for the ailing Brandenburg, who is now the head coach at Wyoming.

Prior to coming to UM, Mike spent three years as an assistant at Boise State University. Despite his young age he has eight years of major college experience.

Montgomery has also served in coaching stints at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State University, the Citadel and the University of Florida.

Offensively, Montgomery likes to employ the fast break, "and use a structured, early offense, designed for people who can shoot the ball. I stress high-percentage shots, tough rebounding and a disciplined style of play."

On the defensive side, Montgomery likes his players to play a tough, physical style, "and make the offense beat us, and not help them by breaking down to give up the easy shot."

Montgomery uses several defensive looks, depending on his opponent's strong and weak points.

The 31-year-old bachelor is especially excited to start this season in Adams' Field House. "The Grizzlies have great fan interest, the best in the Big Sky, and I'm anxious to get the season underway, as I'm sure our "sixth man" — the fans are."

A native of Long Beach, California, Montgomery went to Long Beach State where he played basketball for four years and volleyball and rugby for two years. He graduated in 1968 with a degree in Physical Education. He earned his Master's degree in Physical Education from Colorado State University.

Mike remains active in sports and enjoys golf, racquetball and tennis.

Welcome to the University of Montana

The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful Western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone National Parks.

Four wilderness areas are located nearby Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are located within minutes of the University. Several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course adjacent to campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West's pioneers in education and was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September, 1895, with fifty students enrolling the first day. Located on 201 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from fifty students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of 8,363 and approximately 450 fulltime state supported faculty positions.

Throughout its history, the University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers associate of arts degrees in two areas and bachelor's degrees in 58 fields. It offers master's degrees in 54 programs and doctoral degrees in 13.

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The College also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields ranging from ethnic studies to interdepartmental studies.

Seven professional schools complete the academic program—Business Administration, Fine Arts, Journalism, Education, Forestry, Law, Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

The aim of the University is to provide its students with a relaxing and meaningful learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

Dr. Richard C. Bowers
UM President

Dr. Richard C. Bowers assumed duties as the 13th president of the University of Montana on July 4, 1974.

Bowers came to UM from Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, where he served as vice president and provost, and professor of chemistry.

As Northern Illinois' provost, he was chief academic officer of the University and had overall responsibility for many other university activities, including computer services, admissions and records, and the library. He also represented Northern Illinois University to the Illinois Board of Regents, the Board of Higher Education of the State of Illinois, and the State Legislature.

Prior to being named vice president and provost in 1969, Bowers served as the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at NIU from 1965-69.

Bowers received his B.S. degree in chemistry from the University of Michigan in 1948 and his Ph.D. in chemistry from the University of Minnesota in 1953. He taught at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., beginning in 1954 and became Director of Chemical Laboratories and associate chairman of the Department of Chemistry at Northwestern in 1963.

Harley Lewis
UM Men's Athletic Director

Harley W. Lewis was named athletic director at the University of Montana effective April 14, 1976. He had served as acting athletic director from July 1, 1975.

A 1964 graduate of UM with an M.S. in health, physical education and recreation, Lewis became track and cross country coach at UM in 1966. Prior to assuming coaching responsibilities at UM, the 1959 graduate of Butte High School coached two years at the University of Portland.

Lewis served as cross country coach until 1976 and won nine Big Sky titles until resigning the position. He served as track coach through the 1978 season. While track coach, Lewis won the conference title in 1972. He has been named Big Sky Coach of the Year in cross country and track, ten times. He has served on numerous national committees, worked with U.S. Olympic endeavors and coached several All-American performers at Montana.

PLUG
THE HOLES
IN YOUR HOUSE

Before another winter comes, plug the holes in your house. It will help in the summer, too, keeping out some of the hot weather. Caulking around the windows, doors and where the siding meets the concrete foundation will reduce air infiltration — both hot and cold.

Charlie Yankus

6-6, 195 lbs., Forward
Senior from Medical Lake, Washington

A very physical player, Charlie Yankus is another one of the Grizzlies' outstanding senior forwards. An extremely tough rebounder, Yankus is a hustle-type player with a capital "H."

"Charlie has been a starter for us for two years and knows our system well," Montgomery said. "He has tremendous strength and jumping ability, as well as a good touch. He has been a mainstay on our front line. We expect him to be one of our best rebounders and defensive players. He has an excellent team attitude."

Charlie scored 130 points in 25 games last year for the Grizzlies. He was fourth in blocked shots with six and had seven steals. He hauled down 91 rebounds.

As a high school athlete Yankus was an all-around performer. At Medical Lake High in Washington he lettered in basketball, track and cross country, earning all-conference and All-State honors in basketball.

In 1975, his senior year, Charlie set a tournament and single game rebounding records in Washington's Class AA state tournament. He was captain of his basketball team and named its MVP. His prep coach was Jerry Skaife.

Charlie is an art major at UM. He enjoys woodworking and plans to open a cabinet shop. His goal for the season is "to win the Big Sky championship."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yankus of Colville, Washington.

Birthdate: April 21, 1956.

In Memorium/Dr. Ray Bennett

The University of Montana was saddened with the loss of Dr. Ray Bennett, who recently died in his home in Missoula. The UM athletic department, staff and faculty would like to offer their condolences to the Bennett Family.

"Ray Bennett was new to us in athletics," said UM Athletic Director, Harley Lewis. "During his stay with us we had an opportunity to work closely with him in regards to his responsibility as faculty representative, and we became very close. I thought he did an outstanding job for us. We will miss him."

Ray became faculty representative for athletics just last year. He was a professor in pharmacy administration in UM's School of Pharmacy since 1966.

Dr. Bennett was from Idaho Falls.
